

MY TRADITIONS, MY RIGHTS

Celebrating National Child Day and Article 30 of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child.

I have the right to practice my own culture, religion, and language!

Make a picture that shows what your traditions mean to
you. You can include your celebrations, religion, language, stories, food, or anything else.

You can use this page or a blank page, it's your choice!

ARTIST CONSENT

We're so glad you're sharing your art with us!
Before we use it, please read (or have someone read) this form.

Check the box if you say yes!

☐

I know the OCYA might show people my art.

☐

They might share my art online or print my art, like on cards.

☐

I know they'll protect my privacy. They will share my age, but never my name.

☐

I'm ok with the OCYA using my art.

I understand this form, either by reading it myself or with help from an adult.
